

ROGER W. CLARK of Roger Clark Mediation & Settlement received his mediator training at Strauss Institute for Dispute Resolution at Pepperdine Law School, and he is a graduate of Rutgers Law School and Florida State University. He was admitted to the Florida Bar in 1978 and the California Bar in 1983, and has tried many cases in the state and federal trial courts of those states and he has litigated, tried, advised and handled cases filed in state and federal courts throughout the United States, including Arizona, Nevada, Kentucky, Oklahoma, Oregon, Illinois, New Jersey, Georgia, Texas, South Carolina, Iowa, Pennsylvania, Maryland, South Dakota, Alabama, Virginia and New York. He is admitted to practice before the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth and Eleventh Circuits where he has argued numerous cases. He is a visiting Professor of Law at Rutgers Law School where he teaches Aviation Law, and is a past Instructor of Business Law at Florida International University. Rutgers Law School has honored Roger as Adjunct Professor of the Year. He has been awarded the Armitage Distinguished Alumni Award by Rutgers Law School which is awarded annually upon a single individual for outstanding achievement in a career. The Armitage Award is the highest award Rutgers Law School can bestow. He has been listed in Martindale Hubbell's Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers every year since 1986. He has been named "Super Lawyer" every year from 2006 through the present by the publishers of Law and Politics Magazine. He has also been annually recognized as one of the "Top Attorneys in Southern California" as published in Los Angeles Magazine. Roger is a Board Certified Civil Trial Specialist of the National Board of Trial Advocacy, and was appointed to the Board of Examiners for the National Board of Trial Advocacy. He is Board Certified in Civil Pretrial Practice Advocacy by the National Board of Civil Pretrial Practice Advocacy. He is a graduate of the Master Advocate's Program of the National Institute for Trial Advocacy, and a Graduate of the Advanced Teacher Training Program of the National Institute for Trial Advocacy. He is a past Judge Pro Tempore in Los Angeles, California. Roger is a "Fellow" of the Litigation Counsel of America, a National Trial Lawyers Honorary Society. He is the recipient of the Litigation Counsel of America's inaugural 2013 Peter Perlman Service Award. He earned his pilot certificate in 1982. He has served as an expert on pilot certification actions before the FAA. Over his career he has instructed and presented at numerous events, including the CEB program Advanced Negotiation and Settlement Techniques held in San Francisco and Los Angeles, the Renaissance Symposium at the Harvard Club in New York, the CEO Effectiveness Group in Orange County, California, the American Conference Institute's Aviation Litigation Conference held in Boston, the Embry Riddle Air Law Symposium held in Orlando, and the SMU Air Law Symposium in Dallas, Texas. He has been published in the SMU Journal of Air Law and Commerce. Roger was the Co-Host of KTLA's Law Business Insider radio program, a syndicated radio program airing nationwide on ABC radio from 2005 - 2011. He has been a contributing author to the Los Angeles Lawyer's Magazine and has been featured on KTLK Radio's Meet America's Best Lawyers and Forbes Radio Channel America's Best Lawyers. He is a periodic guest legal expert on Sirius XM 111, where he has offered comments on the Germanwings Disaster and the efforts of Congress to privatize the air traffic control function of the Federal Aviation Administration, among others, and several of his shows have been selected by the producers of Sirius XM to be included in the prestigious "Best of Shows" list. He is the founder and president of The Iraida Foundation, a federally registered public charity that provides food, medicine and education to impoverished children in Africa, educational programs at the university level in the United States, and for years supported "Operation Toy Drop" for children of active duty American military at Ventura Naval Base. Roger is the past Chairman of the New Majority Los Angeles, and a former member of the Board of Directors of New Majority California, an organization that is dedicated to political reform in California. He served as a Trustee of Viewpoint Educational Foundation in Calabasas, California from 2000 – 2009 and is currently a Trustee Emeritus. He is member of SAG-AFTRA.

Roger may be contacted at (310) 717-2026 (cell); (310) 478-0077 (office); and rclark@cgold.cc.